- IV. Director's Report
Susan reported that total circulation and in-person visits have been steady. There are many programming successes due to the dedication and hard work of library staff. Meeting room use is up and the public is very pleased to have access to meeting spaces. The Candyland themed winter break had a ripple effect with many new visitors to the library and being able to promote spring quarter offerings.

Friends

As reported at the last meeting, the Friends will be having another book sale in June, but if they hold a preview party, it will be non-alcoholic. The liquor liability made that cost-prohibitive. The newest Little Free Library is set up at the Colonial Laundromat in Nedrow. The Friends have been asked to help sponsor at least one speaker as part of the Strathmore Speakers Series, and they have agreed to underwrite one. They are hopeful that this will increase their visibility and possibly attract more members. The Shamrock and Spring Flower Sale went very well, and sold out completely. In April, the Friends will have a new president -- Pamela Whiteley McLaughlin. The vice president's position will remain empty for the time being; Sue Parry and George Bain will remain secretary and treasurer, respectively.
